Editorial

It's all about those Bank Holidays...

Ah, it's May already, and blimey it's an absolute sea of colour out there, which really is quite uplifting! Not quite sure why the apple trees have blossomed so readily, but anyway, it's all very pretty!

Easter has come and gone, I hope you all had some suitably relaxing time off if you had the chance. The upcoming May Bank Holidays will mean most of us will get far too used to long weekends...ah well, enjoy them if you can...we may even get some decent weather!

Not a lot's been happening around and about other than the news that the County Councillor, Frank Letch, sadly passed away. As a familiar face around Crediton and wider, his presence will be missed.

What else? Nothing major really...the Duck is open again after a well-earned break and will be opening on Wednesdays from the 7th May...and if you're reading this in time, they are hoping to open on the May Day Bank Holiday, so get down there and commemorate spring celebrations and International Workers' Day...and maybe erect a Maypole, crown a May Queen, partake in some Morris dancing, or whatever else takes your fancy...although do ask the pub first!

In other news, there's no update on Yeoford Zoo, so we'll have to wait for that.

Cheers...

YEOFORD COMMUNITY HALL—SEEKING COMMUNITY GROUPS!

Yeoford Community Hall has availability for community groups for one-offs or regular bookings on Wednesday evenings, Thursday evenings or Sunday evenings. Exercise classes, craft groups, workshops, educational events or social clubs would be warmly welcomed. Trial periods will be accommodated.

Daytime slots on occasional Tuesdays and Thursdays are also available.

CREDITON HAMLETS PARISH COUNCIL

At the April Parish Council meeting Cllr Beasley explained the public phone box in Yeoford is badly in need of repainting. The Clerk will check BT's response to the last request and report back. BT were not at all helpful last time the request was made.

Councillors asked the Clerk to research how best to administer Yeoford Cemetery and report back at a future meeting. The report will also include suggested burial fees.

Councillors supported a suggestion from the British Legion that additional names be engraved on the Crediton and Crediton Hamlets War Memorial, to remember those in the parish who have fallen since WW2.

The Council usually meets on the first Monday of the month. However, the next full Council meeting will be on Tuesday the 6th of May, as Monday the 5th is a bank holiday. The meeting will be at Yeoford Community Centre and will immediately follow the Council's Annual Parish Council meeting, which commences at 7.15 pm. If you would like to read the full minutes of the April Parish Council meeting they are on the PC website. Please contact one of your councillors or Rachel Hodder, the Parish Clerk (clerk@creditonhamlets-pc.gov.uk or 01363 85523), if there is something you would like to have discussed at the next Council meeting. Members of the public are very welcome to attend any meeting and speak during the public session. Meeting details and contact information for Councillors are on the Parish Council website (www.creditonhamlets-pc.gov.uk).

FROM THE PARISH COUNCIL

REPORTING A PROBLEM WITH ROADS TO DEVON COUNTY COUNCIL

All drivers will be aware that state of repair of roads in Crediton Hamlets Parish is appalling, with more and more potholes (or are they craters?) appearing. The lack of action by Devon County Council is exceedingly frustrating but please report potholes in the hope this makes a difference.

Problems with roads can be reported on the Devon County Council website:
www.devon.gov.uk/roads-and-transport/report-a-problem/

There is a link to this page under "Useful Information" on the Parish Council website www.creditonhamlets.org.uk.

If the pothole has already been reported please add yourself to the existing report so that Devon County Council is aware that another person has reported the problem.

Library at the Church

Following the demise of the Mobile Library, alongside the books at the station, there is also now a small library in Yeoford Church and all are welcome to borrow books.

Parish Voluntary Wildlife Warden

Our wild spaces Sitting quietly on the riverbank at Gunstone Mill

I have kindly been invited by Danuta Karpinska to the wild edge of her garden overlooking the River Yeo. It's an early morning and overcast and less chilly than of late. All is still, the river slow after a dry spell. Large oaks lean out across the river, old enough to have been planted when the Mill was built in the 18th century. Willows, hazels, alder and young elm complete the tree line, embracing the river in their cool shade and shelter, stabilising the banks and stopping the river wandering.

We settle down and listen to coal tits, dunnocks and blue tits calling from the hazel copse on the far bank. Both sides of this part of riverbank are left to nature. Either through intent on the south bank or through landowners ill health on the north bank. Danuta tells me of the pair of mallards nesting around the next bend and of the kingfisher's visits to hunt for Millers Thumb, the tiny spiny fish living amongst the stony riverbed feeding on shrimps and caddis fly larvae.

We sit so still talking in a whisper, waiting and hoping for the brilliant flashes of blue and orange that signal the arrival of the kingfisher but alas, they must be busy fishing somewhere else. Our stillness is rewarded by the glimpse of the secretive wren hopping along the tangle of tree roots on the far bank. In the river's deep pools and under overhanging banks brown trout swim and otters are occasionally spotted hunting.

We walk back along the riverbank stepping between celandines, their flowers closed in the gloom, waiting for a sunnier day. Cow parsley is throwing up flower heads very early in response to the dry spell. Campion is fit to burst, and the violets are in full bloom, as is the common speedwell. There is hogweed and alexanders and the deadly waterdrop hemlock. This plant is common throughout the area and it's best to avoid touching or cutting any form of hemlock. It is worth familiarising yourself with what it looks like as it is possible to confuse with cow parsley. However, it is a native plant unlike the Himalayan balsam which flourishes on our riverbanks. This is an invasive species that Danuta and her neighbors remove, a practice that is not happening enough across the parish. It takes over and smothers our native plants and the creatures they support.

We head back out of the garden to say goodbye and up onto the bridge where two swallows, back early on the recent warm weather swoop, turn and dive below us, their red throats clearly visible. Our hearts lift, summer is nearly here.

March/April have been a great month for us in terms of fundraising. As many of you may have seen from Facebook and in the Crediton Courier we held a Readathon in March where children in the school were sponsored for reading books and could also enter into our competition for the most unusual place to read and to do a picture based on a book they were reading. We had some great entries and we were blown away by the response from the children raising just over £1500! A big thank you to Nick Yarnold who came and helped with the judging for the competition and congratulations to our winners! This money will be going towards the outside undercover classroom/play area to give it a much needed refresh and towards some more books for the library.

We also held our Easter Egg Hunt and bake sale at the end of term raising some more funds to help us support the school. We had a lovely afternoon with the children hunting for clues around the school and enjoying some yummy cakes.

Our Tesco grant has now been used for an outdoor undercover area for the mud kitchen and outdoor play equipment, essential repairs to the trim trail in the playground and a covered area for the bikes/trikes that the younger children use.

Some of the PTFA and parents have also been helping to reline the pond at the school and refill it so that the children can use it as part of their learning and to help encourage wildlife to the area.

What is Walking Rugby?!

How can we make keeping fit fun?

Walking rugby is exercise that develops agility and thinking skills by activities and playing games using a rugby ball, at a walking pace. There are no bone-crunching tackles or head-banging scrums. Men and women play together and it's an activity for all ages that requires no previous involvement with rugby. It is popular with those who have retired and want to keep active, those who want to improve their fitness and is used by those returning to sports from injury or as an out of season activity. It's a fast-growing pastime with many rugby clubs and other activity groups running sessions. It's a good way to meet new people and make friends.

At Crediton Rugby Club (EX17 1EP) we hold one-hour sessions on Tuesday and Friday evenings, meeting at the clubhouse at 6:30pm. Our participants are drawn from a wide area around Crediton. We have members who are held together by elastic supports, kept going by spare parts and have a variety of other impairments, so you don't have to be 'fully functioning' to join in the fun. We have sessions with other clubs, play in tournaments and enjoy several social activities.

Come and give us a try; you don't need kit, just some loose-fitting clothes and suitable footwear; you don't have to commit to playing regularly. We play all year round, weather permitting; but summer is a good time to explore the game.

Just turn up at a session or come and watch if you prefer.

Holy Trinity Church Yeoford

The service of Holy Communion in May will be a week later than usual on Sunday 18th May still at 9:30am. This is because of holidays. I hope to see you as usual and we will welcome Revd. Sue Rose who will be taking our service. Everything else will be as usual but fewer Café Company's because of the bank holidays in May.

The Community Lunch will be on May 12th 12:15 for 12:30pm.

Coffee Company Monday's 10 till 11am unless there is lunch or it is a bank holiday

PLEASE READ: AIR AMBULANCE

An appeal to all our villagers

If you, your children or anyone you know plays in the recreation ground please always check with them that they have returned the goals to the edge of the field.

This is because the Air Ambulance CANNOT LAND if the goals are in the middle of the field.

If you pass the recreation ground or see anybody playing with the goals in the centre, could you please remind them (politely) that they should be returned to the edge after use, or move them back if you find them abandoned like this.

Thank you all for your cooperation.

Be warm, when you want
Say goodbye to night storage

If your house gets chilly towards the end of the day, or if your toes feel cold while your heating's on full – you're not alone. At South West Heating, we've helped over three thousand customers escape the struggles of old, expensive night storage heating, oil or gas.

Our efficient, German electric radiators spread warmth evenly around your home, from floor to ceiling, and make it easy to choose your perfect temperature in every room.

ELKAtherm® heats up quickly and is simple to control – so you can be warm, whenever you want... without a big electricity bill.
